

Aim

The aim of this resource is to inform about important European principles and values which are important for a peaceful coexistence in the host country and for a successful integration of the migrants.

Objective

The objective of this resource is to help migrants to get to know important European principles and values and also to accept them, to adopt them in their daily life, in their thinking, in their acting and in their attitudes in order to facilitate a peaceful coexistence and a successful integration in the host country.

Resources

• The Peaceful Coexistence PowerPoint with animated presentation

or

- The Peaceful Coexistence illustrated learner workbook
- Tutor handbook
- The reflection

Time Required

It should take between 60 to 75 minutes to go through this exercise depending on the size of the group and the response of participants to the questions that follow.

Methodology

Show the animated PowerPoint or distribute the illustrated workbook. Read/listen to the information about important European principles and values. After receiving all the information, the participants should reflect on their own and mark on the reflection-paper lines, where they see themselves.

Ask the participants to share their reflections, doubts, questions, thoughts with the group and lead the discussion. If necessary you can use the following questions to stimulate the discussion within the group but make sure this is a calm discussion.

2

Questions

- 1. When you compare these principles and values with the principles and values of your country of origin or culture: What are the differences? What are the similarities?
- 2. Which principles and values do you adopt in your thinking and acting? Which not? Why (not)?
- 3. Do you think it is important to accept and adopt these principles and values for a successful integration in your host country? Why (not)?

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission.

This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Project Number: 2017-1-FR01-KA2040-057126

